P R E F A C E

In keeping with the tendency toward the conservative and away from unrestrained individualism which is beginning to be felt throughout the world, we have patterned our book on Greek classicism. We have attempted to discard the tawdry and bizarre which are generally associated with recent art and literature in favor of dignity, simplicity, and restraint. Against such a background, we present a record of the school year of nineteen thirty-three and thirty-four.

DEDICATION

To the members of the Social Committee, a group of faculty members whose constant interest is the social life of the college, this book is dedicated. Since its organization in 1915, the committee has given proof of its efficiency in supervising student entertainments, being ever on the alert to find some means of making campus life more wholesome and more enjoyable.

The signal achievement of the Social Committee during the school year, 1933-34, was the lifting of an outworn ban against student dances on the campus. The Homecoming Dance of last fall, the first campus dance, which was held in the new Gymnasium, was so successful that it has been followed by many others.

Miss Mary Entsminger is the very capable chairman of the group. The two deans, Mr. George D. Wham and Miss Lucy K. Woody, also are members, as are likewise Coach William McAndrew and Miss Frances Etheridge of the Physical Education department; Miss Mary Crawford, the Head of Anthony Hall; Dr. Thelma Kellogg; Miss Esther Power; and Dr. R. A. Scott.

Standing—Miss CRAWFORD, DR. SCOTT, Miss ETHERIDGE, Miss POWER.
Seated—Miss ENTSMINGER, Miss WOODY, Mr. WHAM, DR. KELLOGG, Mr. McANDREW.

SCHOOL COUNCIL

Eight elected members, together with eight faculty members comprise the School Council, a young man and woman being selected from each of the four classes to represent those classes in the council. Eight faculty members who are class advisers or heads of departments represent the faculty. The School Council furnishes a very valuable opportunity for the exchange of student and faculty opinion, resulting in mutual aid and helpfulness. Besides, the Council selects the editor, business manager, and advisers of The Egyptian and The Obelisk and approves the selection of the staff of each of these publications.

SCHOOL COUNCIL

The most important achievement of the School Council this year has been the establishment of the custom that different organizations are responsible for weekly Chapel programs. Some organization has charge of the planning and production of a Chapel program each Friday. On the whole the plan has been successful, organizations having shown a readiness and desire to present for the student body each Friday a valuable and interesting program.

FOOTBALL, 1933

Carbondale's 1933 football squad showed a great improvement over that of last year, both in offense and defense.

At the beginning of the season the Maroons were minus the services of Wimberely, who broke his leg playing baseball during the summer. However, after dropping the first game of the season to Murray Kentucky Teachers, the Maroons came back strong and held Southeast Missouri Teachers of Cape Girardeau to a scoreless tie. In this game Co-Captain Bertoni sustained a knee injury which disabled him for the remainder of the season. Then Western State Teachers of Macomb were beaten very decisively by the Maroons in the first football engagement between the two schools. In the annual homecoming game, which was played in a sea of mud, the teachers defeated Shurtleff College 2-0.

Signal recognition of Southern was made when Morawski, captain-elect, was picked by a poll of sports writers and Little Nineteen coaches as tackle on the all-conference team.

We regret that three members of this year's squad have been lost by graduation—Co-captain Davison, Wiggins, and Bricker. Wimberely transferred to another school.

The Maroons finished the season with a record of four wins and four defeats and one tie. In conference competition Southern Teachers won four games and lost two, making a percentage of .667. This placed them in eighth place in the standing of the conference, which consists of twenty-one schools.

The return of eight lettermen from the 1933 squad forecast a more than successful basketball season for the maroon and white squad. This prophecy was borne out during the first half of the basketball season, and hopes of a championship team were running high. The Southerners had won eleven of the first twelve games played. Many critics thought that it was one of the best basketball teams ever to represent the school. One conference defeat by Illinois Wesleyan was all that marred a spotless record. Then came two successive defeats administered by Old Normal and Illinois College. These two defeats spoiled the chances of the Southern cagers of holding first place in the conference standing.

At the end of the season the Southerners had played nineteen games, winning fifteen and dropping four. In conference competition the Southerners won eight games and lost three, which placed them in fourth place in the standings of the conference with a percentage of .729.

The high lights of the basketball season were victories over St. Louis University and Evansville College. St. Louis U. had one of the best teams that ever represented that school in intercollegiate competition, and this victory was well deserved by the Southern squad, who played a superb game.

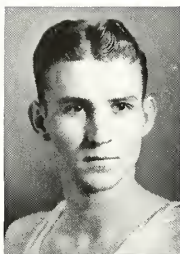

In a post-season game Carbondale defeated 28-21 Dekalb Teachers, who were champions of the Little Nineteen for two successive years.

Holder, one of the most versatile athletes to grace a Southern squad, was placed on the all-conference team for the second successive year. In the DeKalb game Davison and Bricker, seniors, played their last time for S.I.T.C. Hall was a promising freshman who should be able to fill Captain Bricker's shoes next year.

Little Nineteen Meet

Carbondale, Second place.

TRACK, 1933

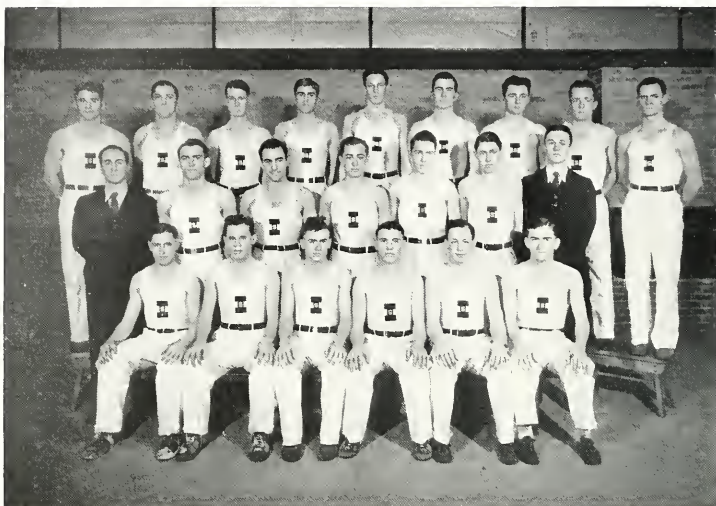

Excepting the Little Nineteen meets, Southern Teachers have not lost a track meet for four years—a record of which any coach could be proud.

The 1933 season was one of the best ever experienced by the local track team from the points piled up against their opponents, and for the second time Carbondale brought a trophy home from the annual Little Nineteen meet at Galesburg. Last season it was a fourth-place award, but this year the locals captured the second-place cup, first place going to Old Normal.

Coach Lingle's track team had twice beaten Old Normal previous to the conference meet—in the State Teachers College meet and in a dual meet. In the Little Nineteen meet, Carbondale scored 31 points, a net gain of seven points over that of last year. The teachers won the State Teachers College meet for the fifth consecutive year.

Second Row—COACH DIGIOVANNA, J. WILLIS, EVANS, KOCH, MAYNE, HARKER, REEDER (pianist).
Bottom Row—WALDEN, CARSON, HARBISON, CARVETT, BELCHER, M. WILLIS.

GYM TEAM

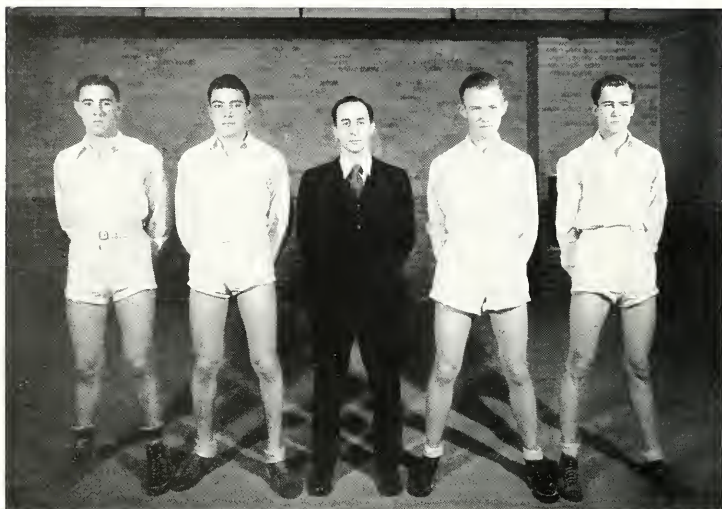

Within a period of five years Coach DiGiovanna has developed several gym teams of importance. Each year has shown an improvement in the performance of the gymnasts, the gym team this year having shown an unusual amount of skill and ability. It created such an interest in athletic circles that they were invited to perform before the student body of several high schools in southern Illinois.

BOXING CHAMPIONS

Each year at S.I.T.C. a boxing and wrestling tournament is held in the spring term, in which the outstanding boxers and wrestlers of the school compete to be "champ" of their respective classes.

In the boxing events John Laney, welterweight champ; Arlie Wolfinbarger, middleweight contender; James O'Malley, light heavyweight champ; and John Knash, heavyweight champ, were unchallenged in their classes and therefore retained their titles for another year. Lavern Tripp, heavyweight, who was a likely contender to wrest the title from John Knash, received a broken rib in preliminary practice and had to withdraw his name.

In order to make a full boxing card John Laney, welterweight champ, fought Arlie Wolfinbarger, unchallenged middleweight, in a three-round no-decision affair. Also James O'Malley, unchallenged light heavyweight, fought "Gorilla" Jones in a three-round no-decision battle and knocked him out for the count in the third round.

In the wrestling division two former champs retained their title, Deason in the 160-pound class and Morawski in the 175-pound class. Those who were wrestling champions for the first time were Rea, Dawson, Shaver, and Haun.

For each sport in the Women's Athletic Association there is a manager who has general charge of her particular activity. She is responsible for stimulating interest in that sport, getting practice started, and helping in the arrangement of the tournament. The hiking manager organizes hikes, and the points manager keeps a record of the points made by each girl in the respective activities.

These managers, together with the officers, comprise the Women's Athletic Association board.

UPPER-CLASS HOCKEY

Hockey is one of the major sports of the intra-mural work of the Women's Athletic Association begun in the fall term. The Upper-classmen, including the women who have been coming out for this sport every year, were out with as much enthusiasm as ever. They won the tournament which was held at the end of the season.

SOPHOMORE HOCKEY

The Sophomores presented themselves for practices with a great deal of interest. They placed second in the tournament. At the beginning of the season, members of all the classes came to try out for the team which was to be sent to Bloomington to participate in a "Sports Day". The sophomores were well represented on the team selected for this event.

Left to Right—V. WILLIAMS, V. STUMF, V. KIMPLER, M. WOMICK, R. GURLY, M. A. EDMUNDS, F. TANNEHILL, A. PARKS, G. AIKEN, I. TURNER, H. MANNEN, M. TRIPP.

FRESHMAN HOCKEY

The number of freshmen who turned out for hockey practice was encouraging. Many of them knew nothing about the sport, but they were eager to learn. By the end of the season they had developed remarkably and had also found out how much fun there was in the game. They placed third in the tournament.

UPPER - CLASS VOLLEY BALL

Volley ball is the other major sport of the fall term. Although the upper-classmen did not come out as strongly for this sport as for some of the others, there were enough for a team at the end of the season. That team succeeded in winning the tournament.

Top Row—E. STORK, H. BATES, E. SMITH, M. FORBES, A. NOLLAU, F. DILLOW.

At the beginning of the season, vclley ball practices were held outdoors. When the weather became cold, they were continued in the gym with just as much pep. The Sophomores had enough members to make up two teams at the end of the season.

Bottom Row—V. BROWN, M. TRIFF, M. WOMICK, G. AIKEN, H. MANNEN, V. KIMPLER, R. GURLY.

FRESHMAN VOLLEY BALL

The Freshmen were quite interested in this sport also, coming out in sufficient numbers to make possible the formation of three tournament teams, all full of the spirit and sportsmanship of the practices and tournament.

UPPER - CLASS BASKETBALL

Basketball proved to be the favorite sport of the women. Everyone took an interest in the building up of team-work in order to make for faster moving games. Here, again, the Upper-classmen with their two or three years of previous experience came out on top in the tournament.

*Top Row—L. ARMES, H. BATES, M. FORBES, A. ROWE, A. NOLLAU.

SOPHOMORE BASKETBALL

Basketball is the only major sport of the winter term, tumbling and ping pong being the minor sports of this season. The Sophomores, as in their freshman year, came out with enthusiasm. They won second place in the tournament.

*Top Row—M. A. EDMUNDS, V. STUMF, V. WILLIAMS, N. SHEEPE, J. WYATT, G. AIKEN.

FIRST TEAM

The sports of each season are open to all girls whether they are skilled in a sport or "just learning". The freshmen worked eagerly, and although they came out at the bottom of the tournament, they showed promise.

*Top Row—V. BROWN, R. GURLY, V. BRYANT, V. KIMPLER, A. PARKS.

SECOND TEAM

Those who did not make the first team in the tournament games, nevertheless, showed great improvement over their playing at the beginning of the season. They took part in the practices as enthusiastically as the first team.

CAMPUS LIFE

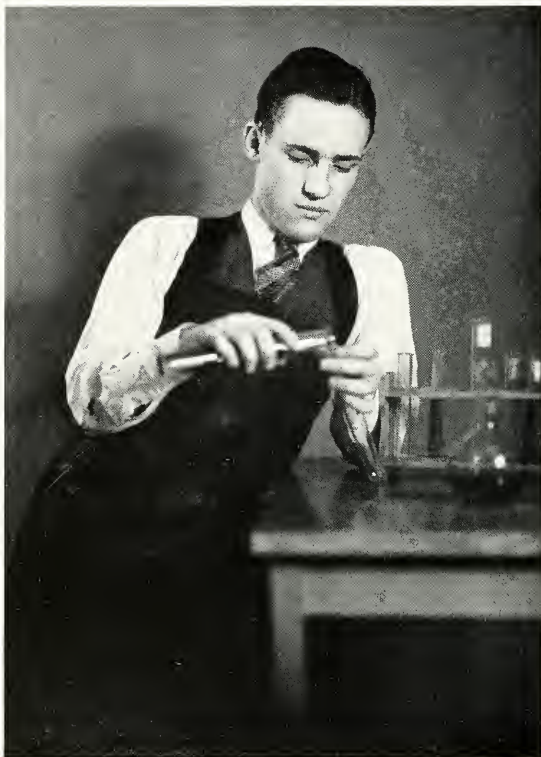

Our Important People

It is well known that a school's reputation depends largely upon its individual students. As with other schools, Southern Illinois Teachers College has some students who have distinguished themselves—whose achievements have done much to command respect and admiration.

At the request of the Obelisk staff, the Social Committee, aided by the faculty sponsors of many organizations, selected from each class a man and a woman who, it seems to them, are most valuable to the college.

We present in the following pages our "important people".

Meet Ralph Thompson, a student of science. Few students have surpassed Ralph Thompson in scholastic and intellectual achievement, his work in the field of Chemistry having been really distinguished. He is a member of Chemeka, an honorary society for Chemistry students, and also of the Chemistry Seminar. Those who know him were not surprised to hear that he has complied with the rigid requirements of the Harvard graduate school and will continue his studies there next year.

Meet Ruth Merz, Editor of the Egyptian. A "nose for news" combined with intelligence and energy account for Ruth's success in college journalism. She has done valuable service on the staff of the Egyptian since her sophomore year, and during the past year her work as editor has brought the college weekly up to new heights of excellence. During 1932-33 she was president of Mu Tau Pi, honorary journalistic fraternity.

Meet Lynn Holder, our distinguished athlete. A real athlete is a good advertisement for any school, especially one so widely known and popular with sport fans as Lynn. Many of the victories which S.I.T.C. has enjoyed during the past three years have been due to his prowess. This year he was invaluable in varsity football and basketball, and was chosen as forward on the all-star Little Nineteen team.

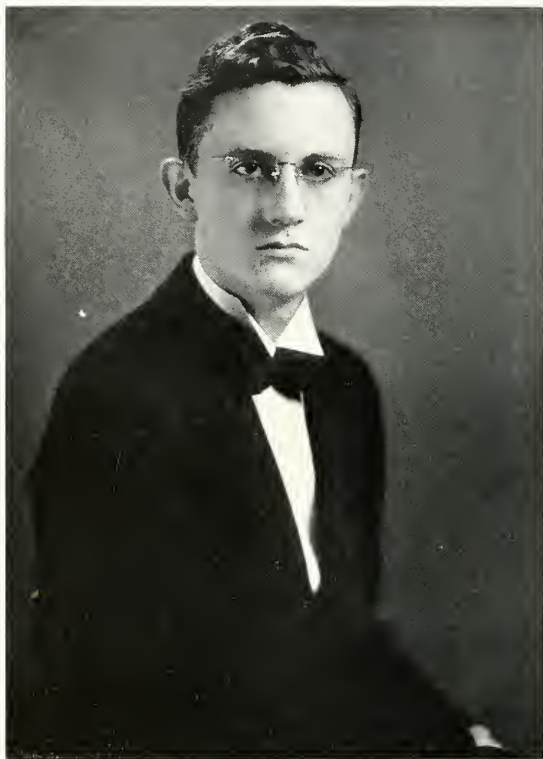

Meet Frances Noel, reporter and young lady of letters. In fact Frances is the best known literary figure on the campus. Her interviews and news stories in the Egyptian are widely read, and her play, White Rosie, won the Strut and Fret Melodrama Contest. White Rosie is said to have attracted the most hilarious audience of the year. This year Frances has also been Associate Editor of the Egyptian.

Meet William Morawski, a fine fellow. Probably Bill is one of the most versatile people on the campus. In addition to having a high scholastic record and a real interest in science, he is a creditable athlete in football and wrestling, a member of Chi Delta Chi social fraternity, and an accomplished violinist. The ability and dependability of Morawski make him really valuable to the college.

Meet Barbara Jane Scott, artist. The impressive stage settings which contribute so much to the success of dramatic presentations are the work of a group of hardworking stagecraft artists. Barbara Jane Scott is one of these. Her skill and untiring efforts in this work have helped to give college dramatics at S. I. T. C. an almost professional setting. Her clever posters and her work for the Obelisk are further contributions to the college, for which we express our gratitude.

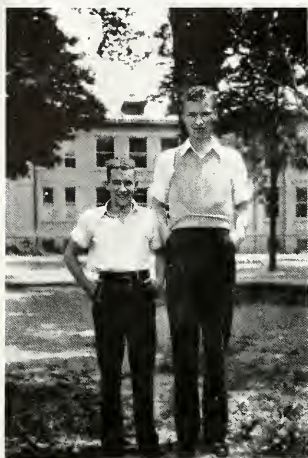

Meet Robert Boyle, matinee idol. A freshman whose talents as an actor have attracted attention is Robert Boyle. He is especially good in character roles such as his portrayal of David Bliss in Hay Fever, an almost professional performance. We shall also remember with pleasure, his work in All's Fair and White Rosie. Bob also writes feature articles for the Egyptian.

Meet Anna Lee Moore, debater. Being elected president of the Illinae, the women's debating club, during her freshman year is the rare honor which came to Anna Lee Moore. From her unassuming manner, one would not suspect that she has a flair for argument, but she has; and the combination makes her one of the Illinae's most dependable speakers. Anna Lee represented the Illinae in both the debate with Cape Girardeau and the annual meet with the Forum.

1933 HOMECOMING

The return of Alumni and much general festivity attended the 1933 Homecoming. Following the custom inaugurated in 1931, the entire student body paraded through the streets after a half-holiday had been declared by the President. The annual Homecoming entertainment presented by Strut and Fret, reunions, teas, dinners given by various organizations, a stunt parade to the football field, and a spirited game with Shurtleff, made up the program. The Homecoming dances, held for the first time on the campus, were very successful.

ALL'S FAIR

All's Fair, a satiric revue in two acts directed by Miss Julia Jonah, was the Strut and Fret production at the 1933 Homecoming. The revue was a burlesque of the Century of Progress Exposition, with faculty and students of S. I. T. C. as guests. The music for the revue was composed entirely by people on our campus—Mr. Wendell Margrave, Grover Morgan, and Justin Coleman. Mary Isabelle Martin was crowned football queen by Louis Bertoni and Ralph Davison, the football co-captains.

Calendar

CALENDAR

SEPTEMBER

Sept. 12—Roll call. Is everybody here? No, some old familiar faces missing. But goodness! what a lot of fresh, eager visages appear in their stead! Old and new must buckle down to work—for, to quote Dr. Beyer: "Now class, you paid your tuition, and I want you to get your money's worth."

Sept. 20—Announcement!—Great interest was aroused today when students learned that a blessed event occurred at eight o'clock in the Strut and Fret Hall. Mr. Robert Dunn Faner was immediately appointed as the Greek child's guardian. It took newsmongers several days to ferret out the fact that, of the eleven possibilities, Aubrey Land was bearer of the title "papa." The child is doing nicely and will answer to the name of—no, my friends, not Junior—Kappa Delta Alpha.

OCTOBER

Oct. 2—By process of eliminating, or of being eliminated, all our lads and all our lassies are pairing off. For instance, Martha Howells is two-stepping with Billy Gangle, Eloise Wright is doing time with Les Perks, and Amy Campbell is slipping into double harness with Bill Rushing. And where do the statistic gatherers gather their statistics about the rapid dwindling in constancy in love? Why the most uninformed person on the campus knows that Peg Hill and Bob Turner are still "that way." Furthermore, do you ever see Helen Hauss without seeing Elmer Holshauser? Further statistics are available upon application.

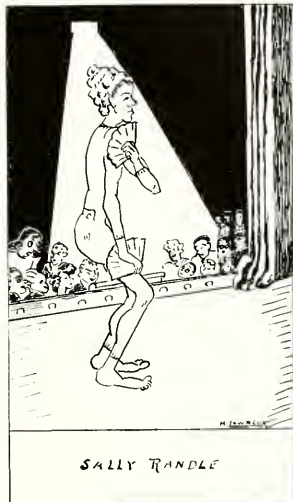

Oct. 11—Birth notice!———Today marked the birth of the Zoological Club. Allen Graves was made president, and Dr. Steagall and Miss Stein were appointed sponsors.

Oct. 12—Birth notice!———The brain child of J. Ward Barnes came to life today in the form of the Latin American Club. It is hoped that the newcomer will have a long active life.

NOVEMBER

Nov. 3—Homecoming play, the gala dramatic offering of the Strut and Fret Club! Can Miss Jonah round up the talent? Yowzuh! An orchid to the Sites and the Mitchell twins for their Shadow Waltz, and to Carl Baumann for that nightclub set. Scallions to the fellow who, on being asked to buy a ticket to see Pat Randle imitate Sally Rand, said, "Why should I? I've seen Sally Rand." Do you know that you have been associating with honest-to-goodness composers? It's true. Grover Morgan, Dang Coleman, and Pat Margrave composed that grand music for All's Fair. This show should rate us space in any theatrical column.

Nov. 4—Homecoming game with Shurtleff. Object of game—to see which side could get the pigskin over the opponent's goal line (according to some spectators)—to select the best backstroker to send to the next Olympic meet, according to others. Whatever the object, Carbondale came out on top 2—0. The rooters crowned Red Knash champion so-and-so, and pronounced the Southern eleven one grand team even if they were all wet. Evening: The New Deal shuffled us an ace—the right to have our Homecoming Dance in the gym. Of course a lot of red tape came with it, including a demonstration, Lesson No. 1: The Art of Ball-room Dancing, by Frances Patterson and Eddie Mitchell. We took it with a grain of salt and proceeded to have a swellelegant time at our annual shindig, Oral Harris and all the lads accompanying. The particular thrill of the evening was Harold Bailey's rendition of Mr. Margrave's "Mishka" by popular request.

Nov. 9—Drew Pearson presented through courtesy of Mu Tau Pi. The skilled gossip monger, himself in person, took us for a ride on his Washington Merry-Go-Round, giving us the low-down on the high-ups.

DECEMBER

Dec. 22—Christmas program. To quote Paul Pry: "Often have I tried to recreate the peaceful and aesthetic atmosphere which prevailed during the singing of 'The Messiah.'" The MacDowell Club, with Mr. Faner and Mr. C. Calhoun as guest soloists, made an engaging picture in their white surplices against the gloom of a reproduction of the apse of the Rouen Cathedral.

JANUARY

Jan. 19—Any student insisting there is nothing new under the sun is guilty of consistent cutting of chapel on Fridays. The multitudinous campus organizations are reported to take to these weekly programs like ducks to water. Demoniacally gleeful at the opportunity of using the student assembly as victims of their theatrical outbursts, they overwhelmed the president with requests for engagements. He, frustrated and despondent in his attempt to "protect" the student assembly, passed the torch to the School Council. Even so, we have witnessed everything from a chalk talk to an interpretive dance- Incidentally, after much attending of all such performances of classes and organizations, we defy anyone to "classify" Grover Morgan.

FEBRUARY

Feb. 1—Basketball. Were our faces red! Not from embarrassment, dumb-bell, but from shouting. Don't you know we took St. Louis U. to the cleaners? 39-37. Was Emery tremendous! Was Davison stupendous! Was Bricker gigantic! Was Holder colossal! Was Hall—words fail to express it. Anyhow, a hundred gushing girlies fought to tell him how perfectly marvelous he was in the last five minutes of that game.

Feb. 6—Extra! White Rosie, by Frances Noel, winner of the Strut and Fret Playwriting Contest, was presented at two performances. The inimitable Bob Boyle introduced the cast, including Pauline Fisher as the proud beauty and Freddie Comstock as the big bad man. Scandal! A certain physical training teacher, owing to her ribald conduct, was asked to leave the hall. She stoutly refused to do so. Her influence quickly spread over the audience and the ultra-dramatic stars were forced to play to a chaotic house. Knowing the show must go on, they bravely weathered the storm of peanuts, carrots, and pennies and concluded the performance without police intervention.

Feb. 12—MORNING—The Sophomore and the Junior Classes waxed patriotic over Lincoln. The numbers were given by John Stansfield, Marjorie Brown, Elmer Holshauser, and the Roland Hayes Club. EVENING—All's not so quiet on the western front according to Eggert Meyer. The tall, eccentric guest of the A. A. U. W. turned the spotlight on the German youth movement.

Feb. 22—Celebration of Washington's birthday by the Freshmen (Martha Howells, Anna Durham) and Senior (Hazel Towery, Aubrey Land) classes. The MacDowell chorus participated.

Feb. 22, 23—Hay Fever—Broadway at your doorstep! An all-star cast in a brilliant, scintillating Noel Coward play! Every line a laugh, and every role a lead. "Here, boy! the bouquet goes to that young genius director—Allan Mueller is the name." Good shot: Rhoda Mae's cushioned flop. Honorable mention: that kiss between Peg Hill and Bob Boyle.

MARCH

March 2—Bong! and we ring up victory number two over St. Louis U. Don Brummett and John Stansfield representing the Forum, dished it out to the St. Louis U. debaters. It looks like we have it on the Billikins this year. The question now is: Can they take it?

March 4—"Rusty"—"Long Shot"—"New Lynn". Recognize these names? No? Tsk, tsk, you don't get around. They are styles of hats named for our basketball men featured in an exclusive haberdashery. Don't worry about jobs, Southerners—any men's clothier who knows his groceries will welcome you as models for hats, collars, and unmentionables.

March 23—Illinae argued with the Cape team regarding a permanent increase in the powers of the president. Virginia Spiller and Marjorie Womble "yessed", and Dorothy Sims and Anna Lee Moore "noed"; but a decision could not be reached. Observation: This seemingly did not phase President Roosevelt. He continued to run the country to suit himself, using whatever powers he saw fit.

APRIL

April 6—The Mu Tau Pi held a journalistic conference for high schools in Southern Illinois. Secret motive: to obtain an audience whom they could impress and overawe with their superior knowledge.

April 30—The Illinae and the Forum engaged in their annual encounter. This one made a fight between the panther and the python look like a mere setting-up exercise. Who beat who? What difference? No amount of decisions could change the opinion one has of the other.

JUNE

June 6—The Socrats present Oscar Wilde's The Importance of Being Earnest. The name fooled you—it was just too funny. What a contrast to The passing of the Third Floor back.

June 7—Not to be outdone, the Zetets offer George Bernard Shaw's Arms and the Man. By the way, the males either have it, or have "it". In this play, they score 6-3 against the girlies. Gosh, why not put out a "Men only" sign and be done with it.

June 8—The apple of Momma's eye swaggers up to the platform to receive his just deserts. Within a yard of his goal, panic strikes Sonny Boy. The profs all seem to be wearing the "I-told-you-so" expression. Could anything go wrong now, he wonders. The big Stiffs, they better not cause trouble or else he'd—Oboy, the suspense is over. He's got it. With a smirk of satisfaction, he reflects, "Foiled 'em again." Immensely pleased with himself and schools in general, he determines to write a book on "How to Slide through College, in Ten Easy Lessons, or Exams I Have Flunked." Thus exit into the cruel, cold world.
